15 COMES NOW, the GUAM POWER AUTHORITY ("GPA"), by and through its 16 interim counsel of record, THERESA G. ROJAS, ESQ., and hereby files its Petition for 17 Contract Review and Approval for GPA's Fuel Bulk Storage Facility Performance Management
18 Contract.

19 I. BACKGROUND

20 The Guam Power Authority is currently on contract with Isla Petroleum and Energy LLC
21 ("IP&E, LLC") for the performance management of its Fuel Bulk Storage Facility. The existing 22 contract was procured by Invitation for Bid ("IFB") GPA-014-17 and is set to expire on 23 September 30, 2023. Considering the approaching contract expiration and to ensure minimal
24 service interruption, GPA issued Multi-Step Bid GPA-015-22 (Re-Bid) on June 2, 2022, inviting
25 qualified bidders to submit proposals for the on-site management, operation, and maintenance
26

1 of GPA's Fuel Bulk Storage Facility. The procurement set forth technical proposal requirements,
2 a proposed contract, and a contract term for a base period of three (3) years with options to extend
3 for two (2) additional one (1) year terms. Following the procurement's technical phase, GPA
4 received price proposals from two bidders; IP&E Guam LLC and Supreme Group Guam LLC.
5 Of the two bidders, Supreme Group Guam LLC was the lowest priced, responsive, and 6 responsible bidder.
7

8 On April 3, 2023, the Consolidated Commission on Utilities approved GPA Resolution
9 FY2023-14 authorizing GPA to petition the PUC to approve a contract with Supreme Group
10 Guam LLC. GPA-015-22 Multi-Step Bid (Re-Bid) and the draft contract and terms within the 11 bid are attached as Exhibit A.
12

13 II. REQUEST FOR APPROVAL

14 GPA hereby petitions the PUC, pursuant to its Contract Review Protocol, to contract
15 with Supreme Group Guam LLC for the management, operation, and maintenance of GPA's
16 Fuel Bulk Storage facility for a total contract amount of Two Million Seven Hundred Twenty-17 Eight Thousand Three Hundred Twenty-One dollars ($2,728,321.00). The contract shall be for 18 a three-year base period beginning October 1, 2023. If desired, GPA shall return to request for 19 any increased contract amounts for its option years, as permitted, at a later time.
20

21 In support of this Petition, the CCU has approved and found GPA's request reasonable
22 and acceptable via GPA Resolution FY2023-14. The referenced resolution and its supporting 23 exhibits are attached as Exhibit B and are incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.
